Dear Marilyn,

This is just a note to express the appreciation of myself and the whole station for last night at Smith. I don't know how good the actual broadcasting was, I doubt its excellence somehow, but a good time was had by all, and that is the most important thing. Everybody had a grand time except Candied-Yam Jackson, who didn't know that his show was being used and wasn't too happy about the whole thing. I am sorry that we couldn't win the quiz; my share of the winnings in cigarettes is almost exhausted already.

About a weekend or an evening for Smith down here: I don't know when the best time would be, but I will check with the members, and try to set up a date. We are all looking forward to such an occasion, if you would like to grace our station again. I will let you know as soon as possible.

Once again, let me thank you for a wonderful evening, we all feel that you really put yourselves out to give us a good time, and that you succeeded admirably. Looking forward to seeing you soon, I remain,

Sincerely Yours,

Charlie
